Stepping aside you come across some perfume and drugs from Messrs. Torres and Co., P. Vinet, A. Souet, etc. Mr. P. Vinet has some very fine samples of Argentine soap; the alcohol employed in the manufacture comes from Messrs. Devoto, Rocha and Cols. distillery.

Leaving the drugs behind, one enters a typographical establishment with books, diagrams, plans, engravings, covers, etc. from Messrs. P. Coni, Hardy and Schlegel. We are sorry to say that this department does not offer much interest, if you except a grand plan of the proposed Boulevard Bona around the city. The Post Office exhibits telegraph materials, which we doubt much if they were made in the country. In connection with electricity one might mention Dr. S. Latorre's electric battery at the entry of the gallery: this battery is for nervous diseases, rheumatism, paralysis, etc.

Messrs. Chute and Brooks have three splendid frames, covered with portraits that reveal the highest art. If we are deficient in oil painting, they may well fall back on photography: no city in the world can produce photographs to surpass those of Messrs Chute and Brooks. There are really some beautiful portraits, shaded in the most delicate and flattering manner. Such is the art of coloring and the finish in these portraits that one cannot help admiring even the most common place countenance. Messrs Chute and Brooks have not exhibited in this section any of their portraits 'a crayon': we have seen several from the establishment that would excite the admiration of the 'habitués' of the Louvre or of any museum in Belgium and Germany. The crayon portraits are striking and are lifelike. Messrs Chute and Brooks' exhibition is the redeeming point of this department.

A map of the Argentine Republic, made out of different cloths excites attention, owing to the originality of the attempt, but we cannot say much in favor of it. It is useless labor and cannot be appreciated.

Mr. A. Prat has a special department of himself. Mr. Prat must have travelled in Egypt, as his exhibits are two large pyramids of small articles. The bottles of his make are sold at $10 mpc, and the boxes contain prices of from $1 to $500 mpc. The effect of different colors is graphically shown on both sides of the department—they are chromatic circumstances. From Prat's we enter the 'modista' department, but of this anon.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The French mail steamer Niger sails this afternoon. The mails close at 1 p.m. sharp as a razor.

We call attention to the Rowing Club's advertisement. Every member will endorse it cordially.

There is always some bobbey going on at Montevideo about a foreigner or foreigners. The Spaniards have not settled the dreary Sanchez Caballero business yet, and now there is a fierce tumult among the Italians about two men named Volpi and Patr. In having been atrociously tortured in prison to make them confess complicity in the Batanont murder. They demand 40,000 pats gold each as indemnity for their sufferings, and it is not too much, if half what is published be true. But it is a passing strange that the Italian Minister in Montevideo and the surgeon of an Italian gunboat visited these men in prison a fortnight ago, for the express purpose of seeing if they had been tortured, and left convinced that the story was all moonshine. There is evidently some hard swearing somewhere.

The Grim Reaper was busy on Wednesday night and swept off two prominent and respected members of society—Dr. Jose M. Moreno and the venerable Dr. Adolfo Buriel. Dr. Moreno succumbed to a long and painful illness. His eminent services to his country, in the press, the senate, indeed all through his life, make his loss to our people felt. It is fresh in all our minds how much he contributed, when acting as Governor of Buenos Aires, to bring about the conclusion of the rebellion in 1839, and how prudently he steered the province through a very trying period. We tender to both the distinguished families whose Death has visited our sincere condolence.

Everybody was in love with the weather yesterday—such a delicious rain in the morning, the sensuous tepidity of noon, the top-coat-inviting chill of night, and the temperance inside the Exhibition after dinner just the right thing for digestion. The place is nicely full, not crowded, every night. The 'modistes' are making fortunes out of the fair visitors from abroad and the provinces whose gorgeous toilettes are not the least of the nightly attractions of the Show. Some foot touched the electric light machine on Sunday and was within an ace of causing an accident. 'Pawee off' Pompey! It should be everyone's motto with that machine, unless he wish to play the leading role in a

The new Western Railway station at Plaza Once won't be ready till June. As it will be a wood and zinc affair, let nobody expect to see anything that would be a credit to Michael Angelo or Sir Christopher Wren.

The French Ambassador, Marquis de Noailles, lately named Ambassador to St. Petersburg, went today to say farewell to King Humbert. His Majesty received him very cordially, during the recent visit from the Embassy of Rome of a diplomat who gained so much sympathy, wishing him the same amount of respect in his new mission. King Humbert declared to the French diplomat that the politics of Italy are not the politics of war, and his strongest wish is that the European peace may be maintained, and for which he will do all in his power.

The arrest of the reporter of the Courier de la Plata in the Exhibition for touching a serf is another instance of the despotic and high-handed manners allowed to 'bobbies' in Buenos Aires. The Comisarios are to blame, and no words are too strong to condemn the brutal and barbarous behaviour of the policemen in the Exhibition. The reporter was locked up all night and all yesterday, and it seems the Comisario has also some blame in the matter.

The mutual complimentary banquets at the Exhibition will begin with the inauguration of the Brazilian section, when the Industrial Club Committee will entertain the Brazilian Commissioners. The latter will at once respond, and so the hospitable ball will be set rolling. The ladies will be glad to hear that the Brazilians mean to tack on a ball to their banquet.

As there is some doubt as to what parties will have to pay the new 'Nivelacion' tax, we give a list of same. They are—Torrelio, Ajo, Tuay, Mar Chiquita, Monsalvo, Castell, Bicharra, Rivadavia, Yost, Aguirre, Pila, Navarro, Azul, San Isidro, Arenales, Rauch, Rancos, Alvarez, 25 de Mayo, Necochesi, Juarez, Obacoimus, Dolores, San Vicente, Ofimela, Magdalena, Ensenada, Monte Lobos, Las Flores, Tandil, Balcarlos, Lobos, Bragado, Tapalque, Chivilivo, Olavarría and Payson. There will be a sharp fine unless the tax is paid up before the 31st of this month.

We received a neat little note yesterday in reference to the Hair Factory of Messrs. Hain and Co. in Olla Liniers. We had no idea whatever that this industry had assumed such proportions here. The circular pertinently reminds the public of a fact long admitted by the faculties of Europe, that the use of mattresses made of wool promotes skin diseases and helps to spread all epidemic illnesses. Hair mattresses are not only much cheaper but healthier. Woolen mattresses are quite unknown in Europe now; nothing but hair is used.

Sr. Finquatto, Comisario of Chabuto, who is, we believe, of Gaelic descent, original name Finnequane, has reported to Government that Port Boca won't do at all as an outlet for the Chabuto Colony, as there is not a drop of fresh water there to make a possible glass of punch or a cup of tea. He recommends a port in Oraker Bay, which is the same distance from the colony—15 leagues.

Some of the salted hide brokers contradicted the two sales of salted hides in this morning's 'Times', saying they had not been sold.

The most important feature of today's market was the putting down by the Provincial Bank of its drawing rates of exchange, a news which all who knew what 'the done for' the Nigra's mails was only to be expected. The amount of exchange that had to be realized in this market owing to the failure is very large, and naturally makes bills scarce, etc.

Many say that the bank's winter rate, but it is certainly very early for the bank to establish its winter rates. Gold, however, is not in the market, the exchange market; strange to say, gold was offered for sale at 100 p.c. and was not taken.

Intense excitement ruled in the liquidation market at half past 4 o'clock. The German bank liquidation rate and the sale of 500 shares of an action of 111, this cry was still they came, and others followed, and the market was very active. The bank's liquidation rate was 111, and the sale of 500 shares was 111, and the market was very active.

Several leading 'calistas' are taking their leave of the Nigra. Mr. Van Daele, the leading artist, leaves for Riohacha, and the purchase of the season amount to 15,000 p.c. The bank's liquidation rate was 111, and the sale of 500 shares was 111, and the market was very active.

Mr. Durand, in his important circular for the market, gives the following: 'The bank's liquidation rate was 111, and the sale of 500 shares was 111, and the market was very active. The bank's liquidation rate was 111, and the sale of 500 shares was 111, and the market was very active.'

youngest company; a man whose clear judgment led him on to millions, yet at the same time he was the one who figured in the market by his advice the money was loaned not given; it was invested in stocks with life tenure to Mr. Taylor, whose stock have risen in worth, and their sale to-day and the return of the money may prove to vary many of the donors perhaps a double charity; such are the ever changing sands of human affairs.

The death of old Mr. Balrich was announced this morning, he was perhaps one of our oldest foreign residents and he lived his life by his efforts and intelligence, his high positions in our commercial community, his name will be long remembered in the history of the country.

The public credit office gives notice of the payment of the coupons of the National Bonds, as they are called, first of all, on April 1st.

Programs have been received from Europe stating that the assets of Luis Páez & Co. will probably give more than at first supposed. These news will be glad tidings to many in this market.
